

Please note my opposition to any change in the Indiana no call list.

I am very happy not to receive the annoying calls that preceded the enactment of this rule. I truly believe I have the right to let these callers know beforehand that I am not interested in receiving their unsolicited interruptions to my busy schedule.